

Printer safety

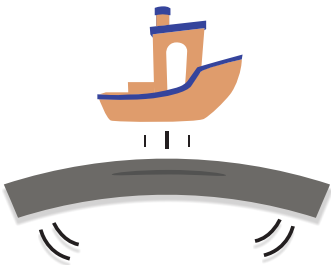

Hot surfaces

The nozzle and the build plate get very hot while printing. Never touch moving or heated parts.

Keep the air fresh

Some materials give off fumes when heated. Keep the room ventilated, especially when printing ABS or ASA.

Don't force the plate

Let the plate cool before you take a print off. Forcing it off a hot plate can damage the surface.

POWERED BY

